

Parent Consent Insurance

Saybrook does not assume financial or other responsibility for accidents incurred in participation. Parents' signatures indicate that the parents' acknowledge this lack of assumption of responsibility and further indicate that the parents' indemnify and hold Saybrook's employees harmless from any responsibility for damages or other cost associated with an accident. As pertains to athletics, parents must give consent for a son's/daughter's participation. Saybrook requires the parent certify that his/her son/daughter is covered for athletic participation by family health and hospitalization insurance.

Warning of Risk

Participation has inherent dangers and risks. Even though participation and practice is within the rules of the sport, there is still the danger of an injury. The injuries may include, but are not limited to, death, serious head, neck or spinal injuries that may result in complete or partial paralysis or brain damage. Serious injury to internal organs, bones, ligaments, muscles, tendons or other aspects of the muscular-skeletal system are also possible. The injuries that may occur may affect future ability to participate in athletics or recreational activities. The above stated parent's indemnification and hold harmless agreement is made with full knowledge of these dangers and risks. To attempt to avoid the possibility of injury, the participant must follow the coaches' instructions regarding techniques, training, and team rules at all times and participate within the rules of the activity. Parents and participants should know that, while required precautions regarding .blood-borne pathogens will be taken, the danger of accidental exposure to the body fluids still exists. All participants are encouraged to follow good hygiene and standard precautionary procedures. Parents and/or participants should communicate any possible exposure to the coach.
